OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The Philippine Stock Exchange (PSEi) ended February at 7,705 points. Despite the 3.77% decline for the month, the Index is still up 3.21% for the year. Foreigners continued to be net buyers with portfolio inflows for the month amounting to PHP9.25 billion or USD178.5 million; this brought year-to-date net foreign inflows to PHP27.70 billion or USD534.4 million.

The month saw rebalancing of indexes, both local and global ones, and earnings reports of companies. For the PSEi, BLOOM replaced PCOR, causing the former to climb following the announcement by as much as 23.7% at the peak mid-month. Select names that either received higher weights or added to global indices were also bought up. Meanwhile, the earnings reports were largely in line with expectations, but those that disappointed outnumber those with positive surprises.

Economic news showed easing inflation (the January print at 4.4% year-on-year), widening of the 2018 budget deficit to 3.2% of GDP, and BSP's Monetary Board keeping policy rates unchanged.

Top gainers for the month include ICT, +7.21%; RLC, +6.12%; and FGEN, +4.17%. Detractors were TEL, -20.16%; GTCAP, -10.5%; and MBT, -9.52%. Year-to-date, BLOOM, +21.15%; JGS, +18.85%; and SMC, +16.26%, were the leaders while LTG, -10.84%; DMC, -10.80%; and BPI, -10.64%, declined the most.

Fund Performance. The fund fell 1.92% in February, underperforming its benchmark by 20 basis points. Year-to-date, it underperformed the benchmark by 27 basis point with a return of 1.71%.

Fund Strategy. Our stance is to remain defensive as we continue to be underweight in equities. In buying stocks at attractive entry levels, we will focus on high quality names with large capitalization and good liquidity amid heightened volatility.
