OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The PSEi fell on thin volumes as global market weakness weighed heavily on investor sentiment. The escalating US-China trade war and currency war continue to take center stage with the US slapping additional tariffs on roughly USD$100Billion in Chinese imports effective September 1, 2019. Meanwhile, China imposed tariffs on USD$75Billion worth of US goods in retaliation. The recent attack on Saudi Arabia's oil facilities also added to investor worries as this led to a temporary spike in oil prices. Meanwhile, the recent impeachment inquiry on US President Donald Trump further exacerbated the negative sentiment.

On the domestic front, the BSP cut policy rates by 25 basis points as expected, bringing it to 4.0% during its Monetary Board Meeting. Not long after, the central bank pronounced a cut in bank reserve requirements (RRR) by 1 percentage point to 15% effective November 4.

The PSEi declined -2.51% month-on-month to close at 7,779.07 with an average value turnover of US$128Million or 28% lower than US$177Million last August. Foreigners continued to be net sellers in September with foreign outflow reaching US$143Million.

Top index gainers for the month include BPI (+5.74%), SMPH (+5.38%), and BLOOM (+5.03%). Meanwhile, worst performing index names were MEG (-14.81%), AGI (-14.17%), and ICT (-11.34%).

Fund Performance. The fund returned -1.03% in September, outperforming its benchmark by 12 basis points. Year-to-date, it underperformed the benchmark by 44 basis point with a return of 3.12%.

Fund Strategy. We expect the market weakness highlighted by global events to persist and therefore take it as a window of opportunity to buy at lower levels. Moreover, we look to take profit from some overvalued conglomerates and shift to other names that have considerable upside in terms of value.
