OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The BPI Government Bond Index rose 2.02% in July, with yields of benchmark government securities falling an average of 37.9 basis points (bps). Daily trading volume was healthy, averaging PHP33.4bn, with the recently-issued RTB5-12 and FXTN7-62 securities being the most heavily traded over the month.

The Bureau of the Treasury (BTr) held three FXTN auctions in July, a new issuance of a 3-year paper, FXTN3-24, and two reissuances of the 7-year FXTN7-62 and the 20-year FXTN20-23. The new issuance saw very healthy demand (Php65.91bn tendered; 3.29x oversubscribed). The security was awarded at a coupon of 4.750%. The 7-year reissuance likewise saw very strong demand, with bids totaling Php74.94bn and average awarded yield at 4.845%. This was almost 100bps lower than the average yield seen in its prior reissuance of 5.743%. Meanwhile, the last auction held month-end saw tepid demand, with total tenders for the 20-year reissuance just shy of Php30bn, compared to the Php20bn offer size. Nevertheless, average yield awarded dropped to 5.015% from 5.17% in the prior reissuance.

Inflation for the month of June came in below market expectations, rising 2.7% year-on-year, still within the central bank's target range of 2-4%. The slower increase for the month reflected milder growth in the 'food and beverage', 'housing and utilities', and 'transport' components of the index. Benign inflation prompted a somewhat dovish tone from Philippine Central Bank Governor Benjamin Diokno, who stated that the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas would likely cut its benchmark interest rate before further reducing the reserve requirement ratio for banks. Moving forward, monetary authorities will continue to vigilantly monitor economic data so as to determine an appropriate policy response.

Fund Performance. The Fund outperformed its benchmark by 17 bps in July.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will continue to invest in a diversified mix of securities primarily issued by Philippine corporations.
