The Fund was approved to be converted to a U.S. Dollar-denominated money market fund last March 6, 2015. * It has likewise been renamed to the BPI U.S. Dollar Short Term Fund last June 1, 2015.

CLIENT SUITABILITY

A client profiling process shall be performed prior to participating in the Fund to guide the prospective investor if the Fund is suited to his/her investment objectives and risk tolerance. Clients are advised to read the Declaration of Trust / Plan Rules of the Fund, which may be obtained from the Trustee, before deciding to invest.

The BPI Invest U.S. Dollar Short Term Fund is suitable only for investors who:

- Are at least classified as moderately conservative based on their risk profile.
- Have an investment horizon of up to one (1) year.

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Interest Rate Risk: The fund invests in short term foreign currency denominated fixed income securities, exposing investors to the risk of loss arising from a rise in interest rates, which generally causes fixed income security prices to decline. Factors/ events that may lead to a rise interest rates include adverse market conditions, issuer-specific factors/ events and/ or negative developments in political and economic conditions of countries where the securities are issued/ traded.

Liquidity Risk: Investors are exposed to the risk of loss due to the fund's inability to convert security holdings to cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a highly disadvantageous price due to limited buyers/ sellers in the market, low trading volumes or market disruptions, among other reasons/ factors.

Related Party Risk: Investors are exposed to actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of related party transactions by the Trustee, specifically, time deposit placements with the Trustee's own bank and/ or its subsidiary, purchase of debt securities issued by related parties, as well as the execution of trade transactions with related counterparties.

Credit/ Default Risk: Investors are exposed to the risk of loss due to the failure of the borrower/ debt issuer to make timely interest and/ or principal payments on its deposit liabilities, loans, bonds or other debt instruments due to a deterioration in the borrower's/ issuer's financial condition or external factors and events that may affect its ability to repay financial obligations such as negative developments in its home country's political and economic conditions.

Forex Risk: Investors are exposed to the risk of loss from a decline in fund value when the market value of foreign currency denominated fixed income securities held by the fund are converted/ translated to US Dollar.

In accordance with the provisions in the Declaration of Trust, the Fund employs a risk management policy based on duration. The Fund may also use financial derivatives to hedge the portfolio against market and credit risks

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The JP Morgan Asia Credit Index (JACI) Philippines returned 3.37% in July as Philippine dollar-denominated bond yields fell by an average of 49 basis points (bps) across the curve.

Risk assets such as high-yield debt and emerging market equities continued to outperform the safe-haven US Treasuries as investors saw past the rapidly rising COVID-19 cases in the US and focused more on recovering economic indicators. Despite 2Q2020 US GDP declining by an annualized rate of 32.9% quarter-on-quarter (QoQ)— the largest QoQ decline in GDP since World War 2—retail sales have stabilized somewhat, rebounding from lows seen in April. Economic activity appears to be slowly recovering in other parts of the worlds as well, with Chinese 2Q2020 GDP up 3.2% year-on-year. Nevertheless, investors continue to be cognizant that a full recovery will only be sustainable if a rise in economic activity does not lead to a significant increase in new cases. Hence, the 10-year US Treasury benchmark yield closed the month slightly lower at 0.53%.

In the local economic space, inflation for the month of June averaged 2.5% year-on-year, above market expectations of 2.2% and rising from May's 2.0% figure. The increase was mainly due to a rise in oil prices, which drove transportation and other related prices higher. Sentiment continued to be driven mainly by developments related to the COVID-19 pandemic, with positive risk sentiment at the start of the month turning negative amidst growing speculation of a potential reimposition of stricter quarantine measures due to a spike in viral transmission. Toward the end of the month, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) announced a percentage-point cut to its reserve requirement ratio (RRR) for thrift banks (bringing the thrift bank RRR to 3%) and rural and cooperative banks (bringing the rural and cooperative bank RRR to 2%), releasing additional liquidity into the economic system. BSP Governor Diokno reiterated the central bank's assessment that inflationary risks would be limited by the effects of the pandemic on domestic and global demand, and that the central bank remained committed to supporting sustainable economic growth using monetary instruments and regulatory relief measures.

Fund Performance. The Fund rose by 0.12% in June, ahead of its benchmark by 11 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The fund will maintain its duration of less than 1 and will continuously look into corporate bonds for yield enhancement.

LIST OF PROSPECTIVE INVESTMENTS

The following are among the Fund's approved investment outlets, wherein the Trustee intends to invest depending on strategy, availability, or other market-driven circumstances:
