OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The BPI Government Bond Index returned 2.55% for the month of June as benchmark government yields fell 41 basis points (bps) on average. The yield curve flattened, with benchmark yields in the long end of the curve falling with greater magnitude than the decline in short-term benchmark yields. Daily trading volumes rose to PHP34.0bn, with the 11-year FXTN20-17 and 3.5-year RTB5-12 securities most heavily traded over the period.

The Bureau of the Treasury (BTr) held two FXTN auctions in June. The first was a PHP30-bn reissuance of the 3-year FXTN 7-58. The auction saw strong demand, with bids totaling PHP124.2bn, and was fully awarded at an average yield of 2.558%, 40 bps lower than the rate at which it was awarded in the security's last reissuance in May. In the afternoon of the auction, the BTr opened a PHP20-bn tap for the security, with the full amount on offer awarded at the average yield. The second auction was a PHP30-bn reissuance of the 5-year FXTN 10-60. Healthy demand saw the security fully awarded at an average yield of 3.182%, with bids totaling PHP80.58bn.

In the local economic space, inflation for the month of May averaged 2.1% year-on-year, slightly above market expectations of 2.0% but continuing to slow from April's 2.2% figure. Higher local rice prices and rising fuel costs were offset by lower food and beverage prices. Risk sentiment rallied at the start of the month as quarantine measures were relaxed, but optimism faded somewhat mid-month as the focus shifted toward concerns about the local spread of the pandemic after a perceived rise in viral transmission. In its Monetary Board meeting toward the end of the month, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) cut its policy rate by 50 bps, emphasizing more downside to inflation risk driven by the potential effects of the pandemic on domestic and global demand, and the need to support market confidence and economic growth.

Fund Performance. The Fund increased by 1.93% for the month, underperforming the benchmark by 62 bps.

Fund Strategy. The fund will maintain slight underweight duration position relative to the BPI Government Bond Index.
