OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The BPI Government Bond Index fell by 0.06% in February as yields rose by an average of 13 basis points across the curve. Compared to the month of January, peso-denominated government bonds were more actively traded with an average daily volume of Php12.69 Bn. Trades were mostly seen on the liquid securities such as the 9-year FXTN 10-60, 15-year FXTN 20-17, and 3.5-year FXTN 05-73.

The rise in yields was likewise evident in the auctions concluded during the month. The government held two FXTN auctions in February. The first was a re-issuance of the 3-year FXTN 3-22, initially sold in January. The average yield on the debt rose to 3.492% from 3.364% in the prior auction. Yields rose even as demand for the paper was quite strong with bids totaling nearly Php34 billion, more than twice the amount offered.

The second auction held mid-month was a re-issuance of the 5-year FXTN 5-74. The average yield on the debt rose to 4.03% from the 3.87% seen in its initial issuance last January. Demand was likewise strong, as total bids reached Php39 billion making the auction more than twice oversubscribed.

On the other hand, the average yield on the BSP's 28-day Term Deposit Facility auction held February 22 fell to 3.39% from 3.40% the week prior. Total volumes tendered were lower by roughly Php30 billion from the prior week. The BSP's accepted yields ranged between 3.300% and 3.425%

Philippine inflation reached 2.7% YoY in January, the highest level in two years. This, combined with the BSP's upward revision to its inflation expectations moving forward, drew speculation that an interest rate hike could happen within the year. Globally, investors continued to monitor rhetoric from the Federal Reserve members, as well as speeches from US President Donald Trump.

Fund Performance. The Fund lost 2.02% in February, underperforming the benchmark by 1.9%.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will continue to invest in a diversified mix of securities primarily issued by Philippine corporations.
