OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The BPI Government Bond Index fell by 0.06% in April as yields rose by an average of 12 basis points, with most of the increase seen on the short-end of the curve. Compared to last month, peso-denominated government bonds were less actively traded with an average daily volume of Php10.55 Bn. Trades were mostly seen on the liquid securities such as the 3-year RTB 3-8, 9-year FXTN 10-60, and 1-year FXTN 5-72.

The Bureau of the Treasury (BTR) held only one FXTN Auction in April, a new series of 7-year paper (FXTN 7-59) which was only partially awarded at 4.5%. Had the auction been fully awarded, the coupon would have risen to 4.625%. National Treasurer Rosalia De Leon stated that the partial award was sufficient given the recent Php181 Bn issuance of the 3-year Retail Treasury Bond (RTB).

March's local inflation figure came out at 3.4%, well within BSP's expected range of 3% to 3.8%. Although faster than last month's figure of 3.3%, Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) Governor Amando Tetangco reiterated that there is no immediate need to tweak the policy rate settings as inflation is expected to decelerate towards the end of the year. Globally, France held its first round of the much-awaited Presidential election last April 23, 2017. With Emmanuel Macron and Marine Le Pen taking the top two positions, the two candidates will face each other for a second round of elections on May 7.

Fund Performance. The Fund lost 0.03% in April, underperforming the benchmark by 3 bps.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will continue to invest in ABF Philippines Bond Index Fund, which duration is closely aligned with the benchmark.
