Risk Characteristics

Risk Measures

	Aug 31, 2009	Past 12 Months
		Low	Hi	Average
Duration	2.72	0.54	2.72	1.53
Volatility, Past 360 Days	1.45%	1.02%	1.45%	1.33%

Duration measures the sensitivity of NAVpu to interest rate movements. As interest rates rise, bond prices fall. The higher the duration, the more NAVpu will fluctuate in relation to changes in interest rates. Volatility measures the fluctuations in NAVpu. The higher the number, the higher the potential gain or loss. Sharpe ratio evaluates reward-to-risk efficiency. The higher the number, the higher the reward per unit of risk.

Risk Disclosure

The Fund is suitable for investors who take medium- to long-term views. As a marked-to-market UITF, the Fund's yield, net asset value, and total return may fall as well as rise as a result of interest rate movements and the changes in credit quality of the investments. On redemption of units, an investor may receive an amount less than the original amount of the investment.

Risk Management

In accordance with the provisions in the Declaration of Trust, the Fund implements a risk management policy that applies the principles of Value-at-Risk (VAR). VAR is a measure of the portfolio's maximum potential loss and is computed based on price volatility and market value of the investment portfolio. The Fund's risk management policy prescribes a dynamic volatility band, such that if the volatility of the Fund's investments as reflected in the NAVpu exceeds the volatility band, adjustments are made for the collective interest of the participants. The Fund may also use financial derivatives to hedge the portfolio against market and credit risks.

Fund Manager's Report

US dollar-denominated ROPs continued to rally in the month of August. Bond prices went up by an average of 1.4% as yields dropped by 38 bps on the back of the better-than-expected GDP figures coming in at 1.5% for the second quarter. The Monetary Board's decision to pause in the lowering of the overnight policy rates at 4% also strengthened signals that the worst of the economic crisis could be over. Despite the weakness and volatility in global equities and the profit-taking activities in the market, ROP bond prices were well-supported by bargain-hunting from local investors. US Treasury yields likewise declined in the same period but only by 9 bps. In terms of spreads over US Treasuries, ROP spreads narrowed by 28 bps month-on-month. Against this backdrop, the Fund outperformed the benchmark 3-month US Treasury bill for the month of August.

With regard to duration, we remain underweight versus the Fund's neutral duration. We are continuously searching for opportunities to invest in higher yielding instruments that may be issued in the near future.
